

Special-Focus Module: Students in Need

What is a SENSE special-focus module?

Colleges have the option to add up to two special-focus modules of 12 items each using a custom special-focus module or choosing from the Center's collection of standard special-focus modules for an additional fee:

- » Academic Advising and Planning
- » Building Relationships
- » Commitment and Support
- » Early Self-Reported Outcomes
- » Financial Assistance
- » Guided Pathways
- » Promising Practices for Community College Student Success
- » Student Success Courses
- » The Working Learner

Frequently, the Center offers a specific special-focus module free of charge, as part of an initiative exploring a topic of interest to the community college field. This free module is provided to all colleges administering SENSE that do not add two special-focus modules of their own choosing. Students are asked to mark their responses under "Additional Items" at the end of the survey. The results from these items are provided as frequency distributions with colleges' standard SENSE reports.

2021's Students in Need items

Colleges that administer SENSE 2021 and do not add two special-focus modules of their own choosing will receive 12 free items about Students in Need (shown below). These items solicit insight from students who may be experiencing food insecurity, housing insecurity, and homelessness.

The Center is offering a corresponding set of items on Students in Need for CCSSE 2021. A fall 2022 report will feature national findings on this topic.
